Sandra also served as Promotion Committee Leader for the Chihuahua Aerospace Cluster, supporting the region’s international positioning.

Ms. Sandra Malotky
Director
Business Development
American Industries

Throughout her career at American Industries, she has collaborated with global aerospace and advanced manufacturing companies such as Safran, Bombardier, Textron Aviation, GKN Aerospace, NORDAM, DART Aerospace, Incora (Wesco Aircraft), Atlas Aerospace, Figeac Aero, Align Aerospace, WireMasters, and KLX (Boeing Distribution Services), among others. Her experience also includes projects in medical devices, engineering, telecommunications, and automotive components, providing a comprehensive perspective on regulated and high-precision manufacturing environments.

In addition to her corporate role, Sandra served as Promotion Committee Leader for the Chihuahua Aerospace Cluster, contributing to the international positioning of the region and strengthening collaboration between industry, government, and academia.

She focuses on helping executives mitigate risk, align operations with USMCA requirements, and make informed decisions related to site selection, industrial real estate, and operational setup in Mexico. Sandra is recognized for translating complex regional, regulatory, and operational considerations into clear, actionable insights for manufacturing decision-makers.
